Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Indian Year-Book for 1862: A Review of Social, Intellectual, and Religious Progress in India and Ceylon The following compilation, it must be confessed, very inadequately fulfils the hopes held out by the title page. While some details are given of the leading events of the year, much of the work is taken up with the consideration of important public questions which have been agitated during the period under review. Though the course pursued may be unsatisfactory to persons merely in search of general information about India; it is hoped that it will meet with the approval of those for whom the volume is chiefly intended - philanthropists desirous of doing what lies in their power for the benefit of our Eastern Empire. Apart from Missions, to which, for reasons given in the body of the work, insufficient space has been devoted, it will be seen that three principal topics are discussed, viz., the Civil Service, the Land Question, and National Education. While the volume was passing through the press, intelligence was received that Babu Satendro Nath Tagore, a Native of Bengal, had been a successful competitor for admission into the Indian Civil Service. Mr. S. Laing observed, There is no right-minded Englishman who would not be delighted to hear that any prize open to fair competition had been won by a Hindoo. All honor be to the first of a long line of men, some of whom, it is hoped, will rank with the Thomasons, Outrams, Lawrences, Montgomerys, Freres, and other distinguished names in the Indian Service. At the last competition even Africans entered the lists. To mould such a heterogeneous mass into a good...
