Arcadia Publishing, 2008. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: Title: Meet the Patriots: UT Tyler Alumnus Helps Preserve Tyler's History Author: Hannah Buchanan Publisher: The University of Texas at Tyler Date: 4/10/09 Robert Earl Reed Jr. of Tyler holds local history in his heart - and hands. A self-proclaimed history buff, Reed enjoys collecting a wide variety of items from Tyler's early days. The University of Texas at Tyler alumnus published a book in the Arcadia Publishing series "Images of America," which focuses on the Rose City. "I contacted Arcadia Publishing in 2005 about an idea I had for a postcard history book, since I have a vast collection of vintage postcards," Reed said. "But Arcadia suggested I write one for their photographic series "Images of America," which covers local histories across the United States. By the time I submitted the book proposal in 2007, I was vice president of museum/archives for the Smith County Historical Society, so I had access to all the society's photo archives." Reed said about 70 percent of the book's photographs comes directly from the society's collection, while about two dozen come from his own. "There were a lot of aspects of Tyler's history in photos that I didn't have, so I knew I wanted to use other sources besides my own photo collection," he explained. "I approached a lot of local organizations and a few individuals and gathered it all for the book. I was really surprised the first printing sold out in about a month." Already in its fourth printing, the February 2008 publication caught the eye of Dr. Alexander Mendoza, UT Tyler assistant professor of history, who said he uses the book as a required text in a graduate-level course. "I think Reed's work...
