Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Discourse, Delivered in Boston, April 13, 1815 Give thanks unto the Lord, call upon his name, make known his deeds among the people, Sing unto him, sing psalms unto him, talk you of all his wondrous works. Never, my friends, did we assemble with more cheerful hearts to offer praise and thanksgiving to Almighty God, than we do on the present occasion. Never have we witnessed joy more universal, than the joy expressed by the American people at the return of peace. This event, like the sun breaking from a cloud, hath scattered the darkness which hung over our afflicted country, and given new spirits and new life to many who were bowed down to the dust, and covered with the shadow of death. On such an occasion, it is highly proper, that people professing the christian religion, do assemble in places of worship, and offer praise and thanksgiving to Him who ruleth over the nations, and turneth the hearts of the kings, and of the mighty men of the earth, as the waters are turned.
